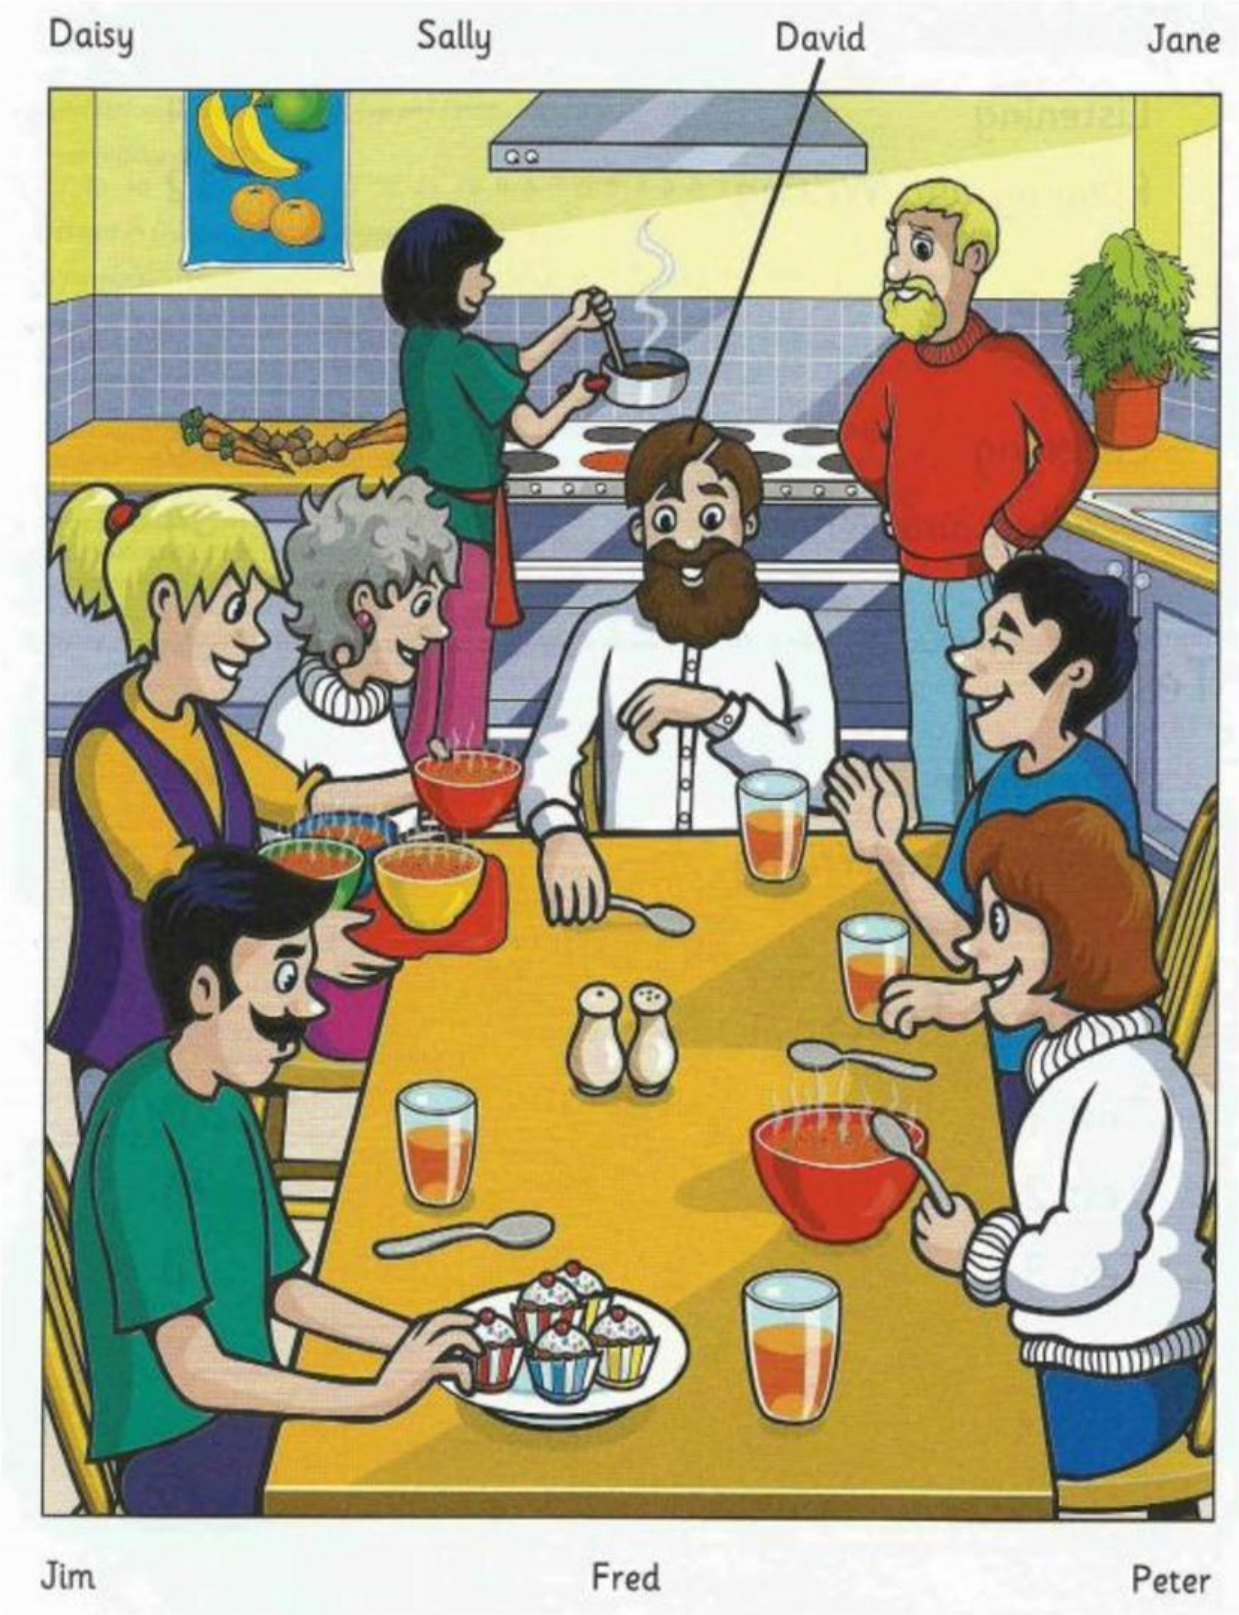
Listen and draw lines. There is one example.



LIVEWORKSHEETS

Lines should be drawn between:

1. Peter and the man in blue, at the table, laughing
2. Jim and the man with a black moustache, with a plate full of cakes
3. Daisy and the woman at the oven, making soup
4. Jane and the woman with grey curly hair, in the white sweater
5. Sally and the woman, standing, putting bowls on the table

Part 1

Woman: What a lot of people!

Boy: Yes, they all live in my road.

Woman: Wow!

Boy: Can you see the man with the long brown beard?

Woman: The man who's wearing the white shirt?

Boy: Yes. His name's David.

1

Woman: Who's that man? He's laughing a lot.

Boy: His name's Peter. He's always laughing.

Woman: That's nice.

Boy: Yes. He's very funny.

2

Woman: Who's the man with the black moustache?

Boy: That's Jim.

Woman: Look at all those cakes on his plate!

Boy: Yes. He's always hungry.

3

Woman: What's that woman doing?

Boy: I think she's making soup. She wants to put those vegetables in it. That's Daisy.

Woman: Is she good at cooking?

Boy: Yes, she is.

4

Boy: The woman with the curly grey hair's really nice.

Woman: Do you mean the one in the white sweater?

Boy: Yes.

Woman: What's her name?

Boy: It's Jane.

5

Boy: That person lives opposite us.

Woman: The woman who's carrying all the bowls?

Boy: Yes. She's putting the bowls on the table.

Woman: Oh. How about going and talking to her?

Boy: Yes, let's do that now.
