Grammar

Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns.

Subject pronouns are used as the subjects in sentences.

Object pronouns are used as the objects in sentences.

They often come after verbs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the table.

Subject Pronoun	Object Pronoun
I
we
	you
	her he
	them
	it

Look and write he, she, it or they.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose and write.

a. (I/ Me) _____ am Rita. Can you give (I/ me) _____ your pen?

b. (He/ Him) _____ is my brother. I love (he/ him) _____.

c. Look at (she/ her) _____ (She/ Her) _____ is my sister.

d. Pick (them/ they) _____ up. (They/ Them) _____ are your books.

e. (We/ Us) _____ are from Chitwan. Ask (us/ we) _____ about Chitwan.

Write the original words of the pronouns in pink.

a. Ruby is my elder sister. She is pretty. Ruby

b. My mother gave me a new book. It has nice pictures. _____

c. My cousins are coming today. I have a surprise for them. _____

d. My father likes Nepali hat. He wears it everyday. _____

e. I love my grandma. I love her very much. _____

Singing

LIVEWORKSHEETS