brand new twenty year well known hard working

battery powered home based decision making low fat

6 Read and complete.

Read the text. Complete the gaps using five compound adjectives from Activity 5.

In 1917, there was a (1) ..... -old trainee working at the Osaka Electric Light Company in Japan. He had no formal education but he was a (2) ..... person. One day, he came up with an idea for (3) ..... light sockets which would be child-safe. His boss was not interested, so the young man started making samples in his basement at home. He later experimented with (4) ..... bicycle lamps and other new and innovative electronic products. After a few years he set up his own company and called it Matsushita Electric. This remained its official name until 2008 when the company changed it to Panasonic. It became a (5) ..... international company. It is now worth $66 billion.

LIVEWORKSHEETS