Some – Any – No – Every and their compounds

1. Write the correct compound:

anyone	something	anywhere	somewhere	everything	nothing

Mum Is (1) _____ home? I need help!

Fred What are you doing here, Mum? You're late for work.

Mum I'm looking for my glasses. I can't go (2) _____ without them.

Fred I think I saw them (3) _____. Let me look in the living room. Oh, there's (4) _____ on the shelf. There they are. Can you see them?

Mum Fred, when I'm not wearing my glasses, I can see (5) _____!

Fred OK, Mum! Here you are! Now, you've got (6) _____ you need.

Mum Thanks, dear.

2. Write a, b or c.

1. It's a mess in here! There are clothes _____.
   a. anywhere b. somewhere c. everywhere
2. There are so many people. You can't sit _____.
   a. nowhere b. anywhere c. something
3. _____ likes Jim! He is very nice.
   a. Anybody b. Everywhere c. Everybody
4. I'm not going to the party. I've got _____ to wear.
   a. nothing b. something c. anything

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. We never buy milk. _____ in my family likes it.
   a. Someone b. Everybody c. No one
6. Do you want _____ to eat?
   a. nothing b. something c. everything

3. Write the correct word:

1. Where's Jack? I can't find him _____ (somewhere/ anywhere).
2. I love the people in this town. _____ (Someone/ Everyone) is polite and friendly.
3. A: Is there _____ (anywhere/ anything) to eat? I'm hungry.
   B: Sorry, there's _____ (everything/ nothing) in the fridge.
4. Hello! Is _____ (anybody/ somebody) here?
5. My town was beautiful in the winter. There was snow _____ (somewhere/ everywhere).
6. Ahh! I think I heard _____ (nothing/ something). Maybe there's _____ (everybody/ somebody) in the house.

LIVEWORKSHEETS