4.1 Infectious and Non-infectious diseases

Diseases

_____ diseases

_____ be transmitted from one person to another

Spread by _____ through

1. _____ (mosquitoes, flies, rats)

2. _____ (air, water,

_____ diseases

_____ be transmitted from one person to another

Caused by

_____

_____

Infectious | Non-infectious | asthma | Cannot | leptospirosis | tuberculosis | flu | mediums | lifestyle | vectors | cancer | Can | pathogens | hypertension | genetic factor | diabetes | dengue fever | ringworm

LIVEWORKSHEETS
LIVEWORKSHEETS

_____ are organisms that cause diseases, such as

_____, _____ and _____.

Airborne diseases

a) Can be transmitted in two ways-_____ transmission and _____ transmission.

b) Can be prevented by practising the follwing ways

i.

_____

ii._____

c) Examples : _____, _____,

_____, _____ and

_____.

Pathogens	flu	fungi
virus	chicken pox	SARS
tuberculosis	Avoid crowded places
bacteria	Cover the mouth when sneezing
Influenza A (H1N1)

LIVEWORKSHEETS
LIVEWORKSHEETS