AREQUIPA, THE WHITE CITY

Arequipa is a beautiful city. It's 1120 (one thousand one hundred and twenty) kilometers from Lima. It's population is increasing rapidly because many people from other places are living here now. What makes it attractive, is all its magnificent squares, it's white buildings and the ancient churches.

The weather in Arequipa is always sunny, but it gets cold in the evenings.

The convent of Santa Catalina was open to the public after four hundred years. It's a marvelous monastery to see.
