What do living thing do? (Pages 6 and 7)

What systems do living things have? (Pages 14 & 15)

1. Match each sentence with the right life process.

All living thing take in essential nutrients from the environment
All living thing detect information from the environment.
Living things can create new members of their own species

Nutrition
Interaction Reproduction

2. Listen to the statements (listen to them pressing the play button) and say nutrition, interaction or reproduction.

1
2
3
4

3. Write N (nutrition), I (interaction) or R (reproduction) in each box.

a) An adult chicken lays eggs almost every day in the summer. ☐

b) Some sea animals expel poisons to keep predators away. ☐

c) After running a race, an athlete should drink lots of water. ☐

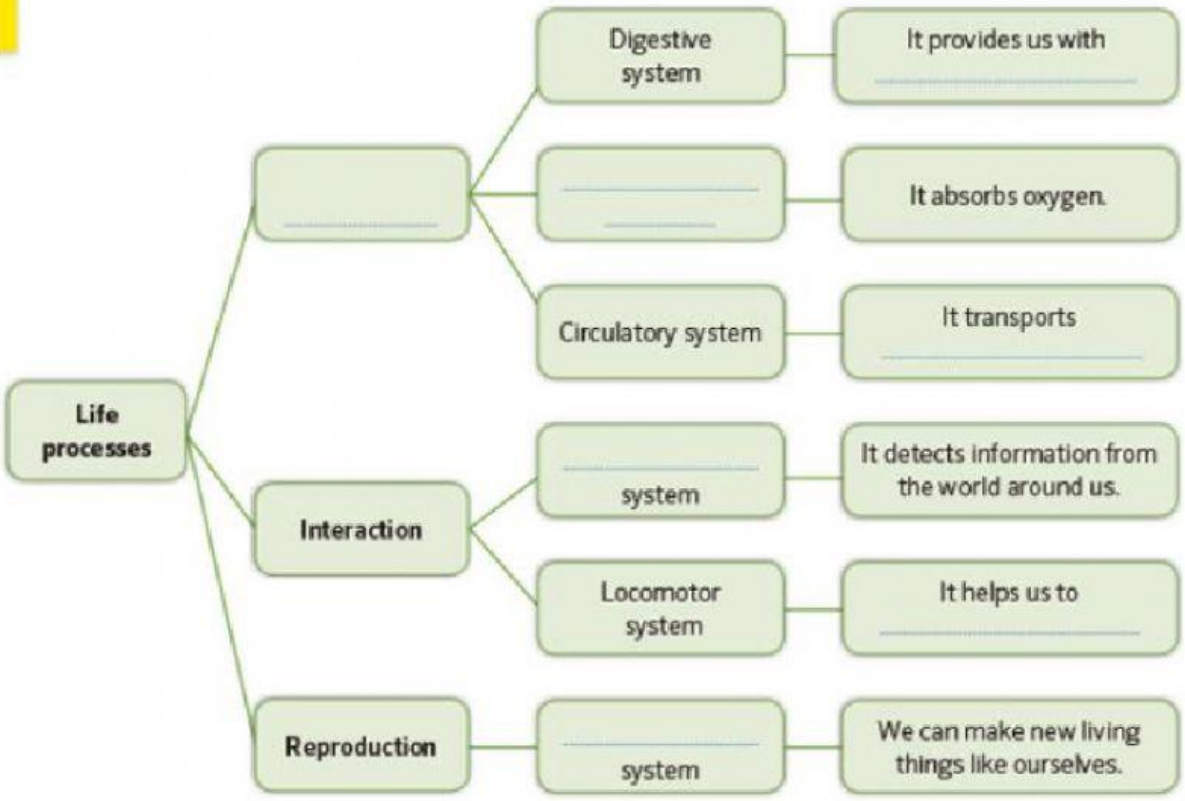
d) In the savannah, cheetahs often hunt gazelles for food. ☐

e) An elephant's pregnancy is estimated to last about 22 months. ☐

f) Human beings usually form families and live together in houses. ☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Complete the scheme



5. Write true (T) or false (F)

The skeletal system is important because we can´t move around without it.

The skeletal system is also important because our bones support our body.

Our skeletal system also absorbs the oxygen from the air around us

Our bones are important because they protect our organs

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Which basic life processes are these systems related to?

Male reproductive system _____.

Digestive system _____.

Nervous system _____.

Circulatory system _____.

Muscular system _____.

Respiratory _____.

Female reproductive system _____.

Skeletal System _____.

7. Complete the vocabulary

Spanish	English	Spanish	English
Celúla		Músculos
Pulmón		Ovarios
Corazón		Espermatozoides
Cerebro		Estómago
Huesos		Intestino grueso

HAVE A NICE DAY!

LIVEWORKSHEETS