How often do you...?

Complete the sentences using time expressions: every... , ... times a ... , etc.

Lisa her

Sharon her on

Laura

I

Jack

My mom

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Adverbs of frequency

Listen to the adverb and match it with its definition.

	Not very often.
	If something happens ... , it happens regularly or many times.
Hardly ever	Used to talk about what happens on most occasions or in most situations.
	Not at any time, or not once.
	On some occasions, but not always (synonym occasionally.)
	All the time, at all times, or every time; for a very long time; for ever.
	Not often (synonym seldom, opposite frequently.)

Listen and complete the sentences.

The journey an hour, even longer.

Women longer than men.

lock your bicycle to secure.

We go .

you your parents?

I have to late.

It is too late to up smoking.

The drive 15 or 20 minutes.

If you your too , it get too dry.

She very complains.

That woman next door complaining.

She at the .

I've wanted to to Paris.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the questions according to the images, and the answers based on the graph. Yes ■ No ■
Don't forget to include question marks and full stops.

Example: How often do you go for a walk?
I sometimes go for a walk.

How often (he) at one?
He at that time.

How often (you)
I

How often (your sister)
She

How often (your father)
He

(you)
I

(your mother)
She

(your best friend)
He/she

LIVEWORKSHEETS