

Phrasal Verbs

out extinguish up with tolerate off delay

Put

away tidy up through connect by phone

on dress
oneself

Complete the sentences with put out, off, up with, away, on, through in the corresponding tense.

- Please _____ your clothes. They are all over the place!
- The fashion show has been _____ until next week.
- Please, _____ me _____ to Dr. Johns.
- It is a formal party. You really should _____ a tie.
- I can't _____ that kind of behaviour any longer.
- It took the firefighters two hours to _____ the fire.
- _____ a jacket - it's cold outside.
- Mum told me to _____ my books _____.
- Our school trip was _____ until next week.
- I can't _____ his insults any more.
- The brave men managed to _____ the fire in the house.

- It's hot outside. _____ a light dress.
- Can I be _____ to Mrs. Smith, please?
- The match was _____ until Friday.
- She couldn't _____ with his rudeness, so she complained to the teacher.
- _____ your toys and go to the kitchen!
- They _____ the meeting until next Friday.
- He _____ his cigarette before getting on the bus.
- Could you _____ me _____ to the manager please?
- I can't _____ the noise any more.
- He _____ his coat before he went out.
- He _____ the dictionary _____ on the shelf after he'd finished the crossword.
- I can't _____ him anymore, he's driving me crazy!
- Can we _____ the meeting until Wednesday please?
- She _____ a beautiful dress and her high heels.