

Phrasal Verbs

out

extinguish up with tolerate off

delay

Put

away

tidy up through connect by phone

on dress

oneself

Complete the sentences with put out, off, up with, away, on, through in the corresponding tense.

1. Please put away your clothes. They are all over the place!
2. The fashion show has been put off until next week.
3. Please, call me up to Dr. Johns.
4. It is a formal party. You really should put on a tie.
5. I can't put up with that kind of behaviour any longer.
6. It took the firefighters two hours to put out the fire.
7. Put on a jacket - it's cold outside.
8. Mum told me to put away my books now.
9. Our school trip was put off until next week.
10. I can't put up with his insults any more.
11. The brave men managed to put out the fire in the house.

12. It's hot outside. Put on a light dress.
13. Can I be put through to Mrs. Smith, please?
14. The match was put off until Friday.
15. She couldn't put up with his rudeness, so she complained to the teacher.
16. Put away your toys and go to the kitchen!
17. They put off the meeting until next Friday.
18. He put out his cigarette before getting on the bus.
19. Could you call me up to the manager please?
20. I can't put up with the noise any more.
21. He put on his coat before he went out.
22. He put away the dictionary now on the shelf after he'd finished the crossword.
23. I can't put up with him anymore, he's driving me crazy!
24. Can we put off the meeting until Wednesday please?
25. She put on a beautiful dress and her high heels.