Should or Shouldn't

Give advice about how to have a good job interview.
Use should or shouldn't and the verb in the parentheses.
Remember to use the base form of the verb after should.

1. You shouldn't bring your friend to the interview. (bring)
2. You should arrive on time for the interview. (arrive)
3. You shouldn't talk on the phone during the interview. (talk)
4. You _____ nice clothes. (wear)
5. You _____ when you speak. (smile)
6. You _____ gum. (chew)
7. You _____ your answers. (prepare)
8. You _____ the manager about your skills. (tell)
9. You _____ during the interview. (eat)
10. You _____ your phone. (turn off)
11. You _____ friendly and polite. (be)
12. You _____ during the interview. (drink)
13. You _____ eye contact with the interviewer. (make)
14. You _____ professional. (look)
15. You _____ messy. (be)
16. You _____ cigarettes during the interview. (smoke)
17. You _____ "thank you" at the end of the interview. (say)

LIVEWORKSHEETS