The house painters

Last week some painters came round to paint my house. I usually do this kind of a job myself, but I've been here very busy for the last month. So I called a more local decorating firm, and they agreed to do it for a reasonable price. Three men arrived on Monday the morning to paint the outside walls. Of course, they were used the wrong colour and spilt paint all over the front door. Some one of the windows upstairs were open, and some of paint went inside the house and ruined both the carpet in the living-room. They also broke a window. I phoned their company, and the manager assured me that they would repaint than the walls. Then I went away on a business. I've just come back, and the walls are a different colour, but it is still such the wrong colour. If I had done the job myself, I would have finished it by now.

Holiday problems

Somehow I always have problems when I go away on holiday. (1).....every..... year my travel agent promises me that my holiday will be (2).....best I have ever had, but none of these promises has ever (3).....true. This year I got food poisoning (4).....day I arrived. It must have been the fish I ate at the hotel (5).....evening. In (6).....morning I felt terrible, and I was seen by two doctors. I tried to explain my problem to them, but (7).....of them spoke English, (8).....didn't help. It took me (9).....of the first week to recover, and I spent three or four days sitting next to (10).....hotel swimming pool reading newspapers. By the time I felt better, (11).....weather had changed, but I was determined to go sight-seeing, and do (12).....swimming. Unfortunately (13).....of the museums were open, as there was (14).....strike. I would have enjoyed myself (15).....if I had stayed at home.
