MILITARY UNIFORMS

A. Reading

There are five military branches in the United States: Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, and Coast Guard. Each branch has its own special uniforms. New soldiers wear a uniform everyday and a dress uniform when they join a branch of the military. These uniforms include special hats, helmets, and patches. New soldiers also wear boots, dress shoes, and socks. There is a law that says military uniforms must be made in the U.S.A. .

In the picture, the soldier on the left is in the Navy and the soldier on the right is in the Army. They are wearing military uniforms. Some soldiers wear medals on their uniforms. When a soldier has many medals, we say that he or she is "highly decorated".
