

Task: Writing: Future Cities

Complete the paragraph. Use the words from the box.

There are many books and films talking about the way we will live in the(1). This essay will give you a personal outlook on how life could be in the future. Cartoons such Futurama seem to be preparing children for a future controlled by(2).

There has been a lot of discussion about what food and how much food will be eating in the future. After reading what scientists saying, it seems that food will no longer grow on farmland but in(3). In the UAE today, you can find supermarkets selling fresh produce grown in hydroponic factories.

In terms of transport, the future is again quite clear on what transport people will use in the future. There is a push to reduce the number of cars on the road. Instead, people will use bikes or travel in(3). Car travel will be the rich only.

There will be(4) taxis for people to use.

As for education, schools will no longer have(5) teachers. Education will move to(6) with AI technology guiding students through their lessons. Learning will no longer be with other students. Students will study alone. They will interact with(7) or (AI) on their computers.

Finally, there is so much information available for people to read on the plans that are being put in place for mankind's future way of living. All in all, it will involve less contact with other humans and more interaction with technology.

(a) technology (b) laboratories (c) (d) future

(e) driverless (f) high speed trains (g) human (h) robots (i) online learning