TASK 1- Read the text about university life. For gaps 1-14, choose one suitable word from the box. There are THREE words you do not need. Each word can be used ONCE. 0 is the example. Write your answers in the answer sheet. (14 x 0.5 = 7 marks).

A day in the life of a History student

Hi! I'm Rebecca and I'm in my first year of studying History here at the University of York. I've had a great start to uni and I've 0 ~~been~~ able to get involved in so much more 1_____just my course, which has really helped me to adjust to life here!

Morning

Usually, if I have a seminar, my day starts at half past seven. This gives me 2_____time to get ready, have breakfast and 3_____across campus for a 9am start. I live on Campus East, about ten minutes from the main campus. I usually walk or cycle over to my lectures and seminars, 4_____on cold and rainy mornings it's nice to be able to take the bus!

Seminars

Seminars make up a large part of teaching in the Department of History. They are a great 5_____ to discuss and ask questions about your reading or lectures. Usually, the seminar leader is either a lecturer or a postgraduate student. I really enjoy seminars 6_____they give you an opportunity to ask about the lecture or something you've read. Also, they help develop your understanding of the subject by 7_____to other students about what they have found. Talking in a group can be a bit 8_____at first. But the good news is 9_____feels the same way and you´re not expected to get it right first time.

Afternoon

Then I'll return to my accommodation for a bit of lunch 10_____starting any work or reading I have. Luckily, we don't get a ton of essays on top of our reading. I usually work best in my room, but some people prefer 11_____in the library or in the social areas located around campus. It all depends 12_____how you work or what you´re doing.

Evening

By around half past five, most people in the house 13_____finished their contact hours and we end up hanging out in the kitchen while we make dinner. It's great to take some time out from studying and relax. University life is a lot 14_____when you have people who understand and can make you laugh at the end of a long day! [...]
