WILL THERE BE...?

1. Listen to the conversation:

Lily: What are you reading, Ravi?

Ravi: It's a story about the future.

Lily: Is it interesting?

Ravi: Yes, it is. It says that cities will be different in the future.

Lily: Really? Will there be ice rinks?

Ravi: Yes, there will. It says that there will be football stadiums, too, but there won't be any airports.

Lily: Wow! That sounds interesting. Can I read it after you?

Ravi: Of course.

2. Answer to the questions:

a. what is Ravi reading? He´s reading a story _____.

b.What does the story say? It says that _____ in the future.

c.It also says that there will be _____, too, but there won´t be _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Grammar: Will there be…?

			libraries hotels
Will	there	be	ice rinks	in the future?
			universities art galleries

4.Write down the questions about the future:

Example: 0.libraries:

0.Will there be libraries in the future?

1.hotels:

1._____?

2.ice rinks:

2._____?

3.universities:

3._____?

4.art galleries:

4._____?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Revising vocabulary from the unit:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS