Make sentences with the present simple or present continuous:

(He / often/come) _____ to London?

He (play) _____ tennis now.

(You / come) _____ to the cinema later?

They (go) _____ to a restaurant every Saturday.

She (not / go) _____ _____ to the cinema very often.

(You / come) _____ tonight?

(He / eat) _____ rice every day?

I (work) _____ at the moment.

You usually (arrive) _____ late.

He normally (eat) _____ dinner at home.

(You / study) _____ every night?

(They / usually/work) _____ late?

You (not / go) _____ out later.

I (not / work) _____ tonight.

(She / work) _____ at the moment?

I (not / drink) _____ coffee very often.

Julie (sleep) _____ now.

They (not / come) _____ to the party tomorrow.

He (not / play) _____ golf now.

(You / play) _____ tennis this Sunday?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

KEY - SOLUCIONARIO

Make sentences with the present simple or present continuous:

Does he often come to London?

He is playing tennis now.

Are you coming to the cinema later?

They go to a restaurant every Saturday.

She doesn't go to the cinema very often.

Are you coming tonight?

Does he eat rice every day?

I am working at the moment.

You usually arrive late.

He normally eats dinner at home.

Do you study every night?

Do they usually work late?

You are not going out later.

I am not working tonight.

Is she working at the moment?

I don't drink coffee very often.

Julie is sleeping now.

They are not coming to the party tomorrow.

He is not playing golf now.

Are you playing tennis this Sunday?

LIVEWORKSHEETS