Complete the activity about the grammar Indirect Questions.

Reflect on Grammar

Indirect Questions

Indirect questions are questions inside other questions or statements.

Yes/no-question

Introduction	Question
Do you know if	☐ a. we can swim in the lake? ☐ b. can we swim in the lake?

Wh-question

Introduction	Question
Could you tell me	☐ a. where the hiking trail is? ☐ b. where is the hiking trail?
Can you tell me what time	☐ a. the cafeteria opens? ☐ b. does the cafeteria open?

Could you tell me _____ the waterfall is?

Do you know _____ we can swim in the lake?

Choose:

- For yes/no questions use if / wh-words to connect the introduction to the question.
- For wh-questions, use wh-words / can to connect the introduction with the question.

LIVEWORKSHEETS