
AT THE RAILWAY STATION

Task: Insert prepositions:

The Taylors are _____ the railway station. They are leaving _____ London. Mrs Taylor's brother lives there and he invited them to spend a few days in London _____ the Easter holidays. Amanda and Betty are very excited.

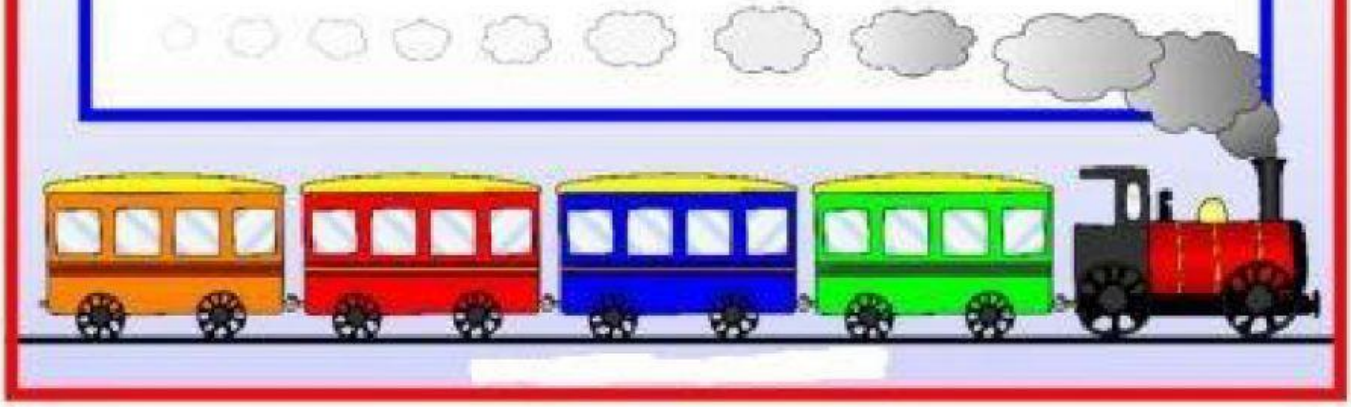
The railway station is busy and noisy. The girls are surprised to see so many passengers. Some are hurrying to catch their trains. Others are having a cup of tea and a bun or a sandwich _____ the refreshment room.

A train is standing _____ one of the platforms ready to leave. Some of the passengers are looking _____ of the windows. Late-comers are hurrying along looking _____ empty seats.

At another platform a train has just come _____. Some passengers are getting _____ the train, others are getting on.

Mr Taylor is looking _____ a porter to help him carry the luggage _____ the platform.

Their train goes _____ platform five. Mrs Taylor is buying some newspapers and a magazine from the bookstall. They'll read them _____ their journey. Amanda and Betty are _____ the waiting room. They are sitting _____ the suitcases. The girls are very happy. It is their first journey London.



LIVEWORKSHEETS