THE SURFING DOG!

News!

The last World Dog Surfing Championships, organised in San Francisco Bay, were won by Nico, the labrador. The judges 1 ? him the highest scores for confidence and style. After the victory, Nico's owner, Mark, was asked how he 2 ? his dog to surf. The answer is, he 3 ? him at all! Nico 4 ? to surf by observing Mark, who is a surfer himself. One day the dog just 5 ? on the board and off he went!

Mark 6 ? that his dog was very intelligent so he 7 ? Nico to be a service dog*. Unfortunately, the dog was a poor student and 8 ? to learn the necessary tricks. Then, Mark [9](come up with) ? another idea. He 10 ? that people loved watching videos showing Nico surfing, so he 11 ? to use it to earn money which he could give to people in need. Mark invited a disabled person to surf with Nico and 12 ? a short video. Although the dog 13 ? a poor student before, he 14 ? an excellent surfing companion! He 15 ? confidence to the person surfing with him on the same board. The video 16 ? viral! And Nico and Mark have already donated over $20,000 to charity.

* A service dog is a dog trained to help people with disabilities (for example people who have problems with their sight, hearing or movement).
