END-OF-YEAR TEST
Listening

1 [Track 18] You will hear four different people talking about flying. For each speaker (1–4), choose one sentence (A–E) which is true. There is one extra sentence which you do not need to use.

A The speaker is explaining an airline's rules about luggage.
B The speaker would like more information about an airline company.
C The speaker mentions advantages and disadvantages of an airline company.
D The speaker is asking for something.
E The speaker is trying to persuade people to travel with an airline company.

Speaker:
1
2
3
4

2 [Track 19] You will hear an interview with a police detective. For questions 1–5, choose the correct answer, A, B, C or D.

1 Emma chose a career in the police because
A it was the job her father did.
B she wanted her father to be proud of her.
C she wanted to set a good example for other girls.
D it's the job her parents wanted her to do.

2 The job of police detective is becoming more and more popular with young people because
A they want to solve the crimes they see on TV.
B new techniques and strategies make it easier to solve crimes.
C they think it's an easier job than it really is.
D they believe they will earn a lot of money.

3 Emma most enjoys solving
A cases that make her think differently.
B murder cases.
C very serious crimes.
D cases that are difficult to solve.

4 Emma
A usually needs a lot of time to prove who committed a crime.
B is often surprised by how intelligent criminals are.
C can regularly identify the criminal at the start of an investigation.
D also studied psychology at university.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5 To become a police detective you must
A first work successfully as a police officer.
B get a university degree connected to police work.
C pass a number of tests before getting a job as a police officer.
D spend a lot of money on training courses.

6 What characteristic is important to be a police detective?
A Being knowledgeable on many different topics
B Not always following the rules
C Having the ability to understand other people's feelings
D Being able to relax easily

3 [Track 11] Listen to a conversation about climate change. For questions 1–5, choose the correct answer, A, B, C or D.

1 The woman gives an example of extreme weather which occurred in
A the southern USA.
B Britain.
C Canada.
D Mexico.

2 The speaker doesn't give an example of record-breaking
A hot weather.
B dry weather.
C cold weather.
D wet weather.

3 The speaker says climate change will lead to
A increases in temperatures everywhere.
B changes in the type of weather different places get.
C richer countries becoming poorer.
D more extreme weather all over the world.

4 One possible effect of global warming and changes to the Gulf Stream is that
A Britain's weather won't change.
B Britain will become much warmer.
C Britain will become much drier.
D Britain will become much wetter.

5 The aim of the radio show is to
A discuss ways that governments can fight climate change.
B listen to someone who has experienced extreme weather.
C decide whether extreme weather events are more common nowadays.
D criticise people who do not believe that climate change is caused by humans.

LIVEWORKSHEETS