End test

Unit 4

1. Match the directions and the pictures.

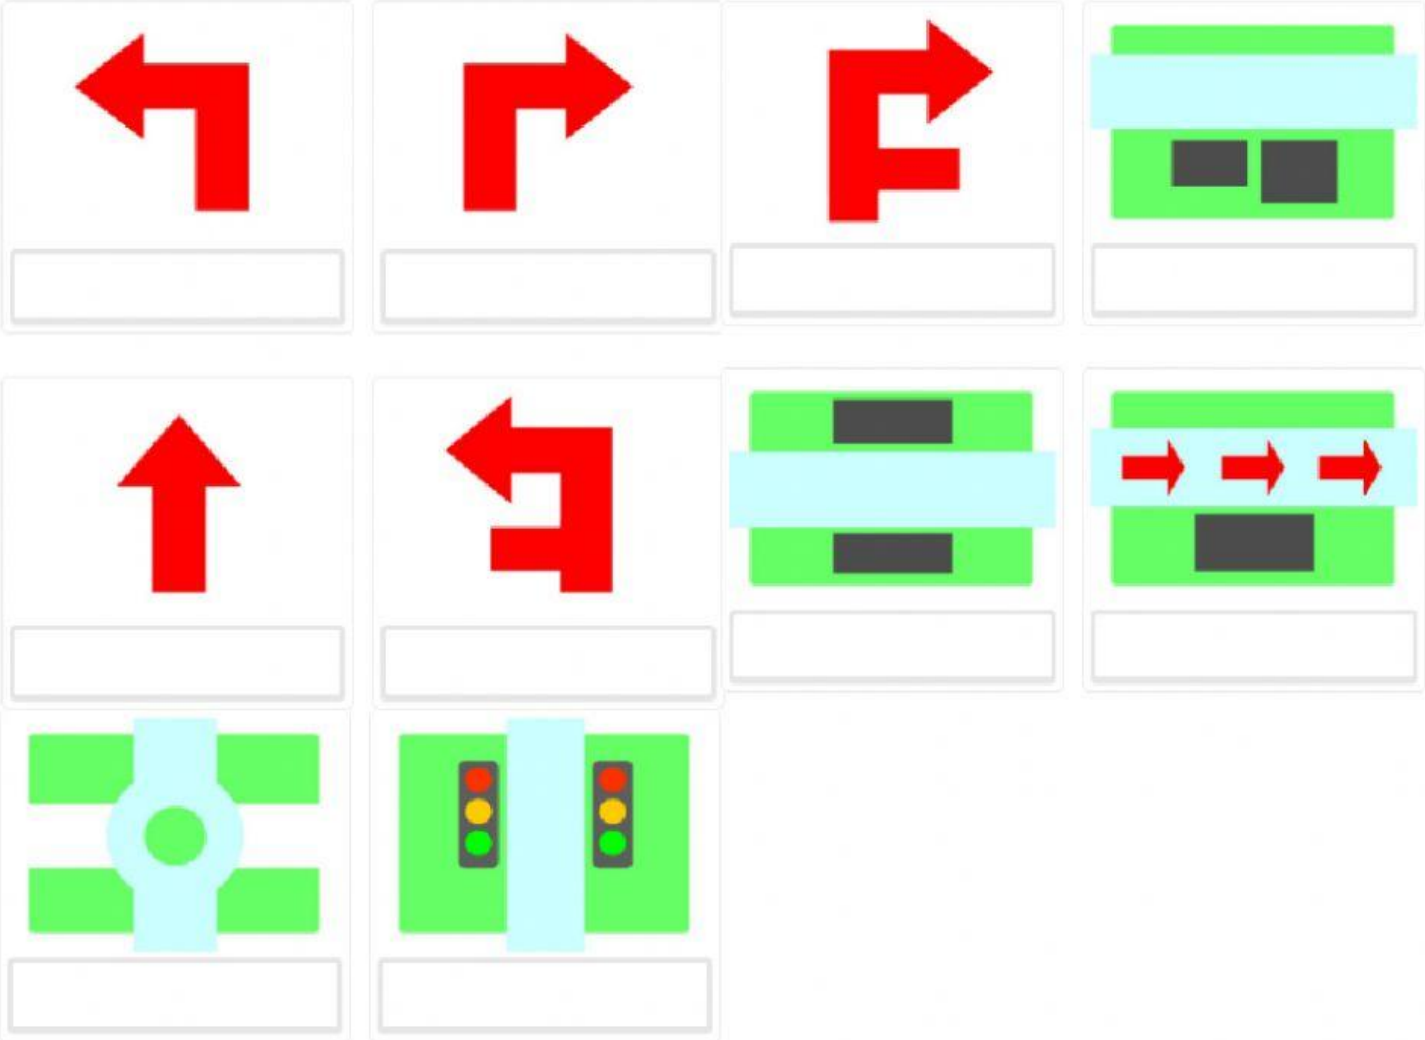
turn right	opposite	go past	roundabout	traffic lights	turn left	go straight on
take the second turning on the left	next to	take the second turning on the right



End test

Unit 4

2. Giving directions

Fill the gaps with the correct word to complete the directions.

straight	take	at	second	past
on	go

1. Go _____ on.

2. _____ past the traffic lights.

3. It's the building next to the library _____ the left.

4. _____ the roundabout turn left.

5. Then _____ the first turning on the left on to Green Street.

6. Go _____ the traffic lights and take the _____ turning on the right on to King's Road.

3. Present Continuous for future

Example: I did really well in the interview, so I'm starting on Monday. (start)

1. My wife and I _____ (have) a party this weekend. We've already bought the drinks and sent the invitations.

2. Celia _____ (move) to Chicago later this month. She got a job there.

3. Marla _____ (not come) to the meeting today. She has to catch a flight at 2.30 p.m.

4. We _____ (go) shopping later today to buy Shawn a gift. Do you want to tag along?

End test

Unit 4

4.Match the definitions to the picture.

_____ _____ _____

_____ _____

How's it going?	He's off to go on a journey.	Guess what!
Get lost!	ask somebody out

5. Fill in the gaps with the correct article: a / an / the, or no (-) article.

The Tailor of Swaffham

Once upon a time there was _____ tailor. He lived with his wife and five children in _____ village of Swaffham. The tailor and his wife worked hard, but they never had enough money.

They lived in _____ small cottage. In the garden there was _____ big, old oak tree. The tailor often sat under the tree. One day he he was sitting under _____ tree when he feel asleep. While he was sleeping, his wife came out of the house. She woke him up.

- "Why aren't you working?" , she said angrily. "We haven't got any money for food."

End test

Unit 4

-
"Don't worry," said the tailor. "We'll soon be rich. While I was asleep, I had _____ strang e dream. In my dream _____ voice said: "Go to _____ London Bridge.
You'll find treasure there.""

- "Don't be silly," said his wife. "You can't leave everything and go to London."

However, the next day _____ tailor packed his bag and set off to London. It was a long journey, but after four days he arrived in the capital city. He went straight to _____ London Bridge. There were lots of shops on the bridge in those days, so it was a busy place.

The tailor walked up and down the bridge all day, but nothing happened and nobody spoke to him. The next day, as he was walking along the bridge, two boys suddenly ran towards to him. They pushed him and they stole his bag. Then they ran away into the crowd of people.

The tailor sat down on the pavement. "I had very little money when I arrived," he thought. "Now, I haven't got anything."

While he was sitting there, somebody spoke to him. It was one of _____ shopkeepers.
"What are you doing?" he asked.
"I saw you yesterday. You were walking up and down the bridge all day."

The tailor told the shopkeeper about his dream.

-"That's silly," said the shopkeeper and he laughed. "You can't believe dreams.
I had _____ dream last night. In _____ dream I was digging under an old oak tree and I found _____ big box of gold. But it was only a dream. I'm not going to look for the tree."

-"Where was the tree?" asked the tailor.

-"Oh, it was in village called Swaffham," said the shopkeeper. "Swaffham!
I don't even know where it is!"

When he heard his, the tailor jumped up. He said "Thank you!" to the shopkeeper and started the long journey home.

-"Well, where's _____ treasure?" said his wife.

The tailor didn't say anything. He grabbed a spade, ran into the garden and started to dig under _____ old oak tree. It was hard work, but soon the spade hit something. It was _____ wooden box.

The tailor opened _____ box. It was full of gold and silver.

"I walked all the way to London," he said. "But the treasure was here in my own garden!"