第二部分：題組 (第16-41題，共26題)

(16-18)

Dear Anna,

I need your help.

I envy my sister, Amy. She is tall and thin. She looks beautiful in a dress. I am short and heavy. I never wear a dress. I always wear a T-shirt and jeans. One of my aunts said that my sister looked like a swan, and I looked like an ugly duckling.

I feel sad. Will I be a swan some day?

Ugly Duckling

Dear Ugly Duckling,

Be happy.

Isn't it nice to have a beautiful sister?

Remember, your sister is beautiful, and you are, too. Everyone is beautiful in their own way.

Forget what your aunt said. She did not mean to hurt you, but was just kidding you.

Yes, you can be a swan. Cheer up.

Anna

Songs of the Month for Children

* The Vegetable Song by Alice Miller

A great song to learn the names of different vegetables. It also tells children to eat more vegetables to get healthy and strong.

* My Birthday Party by William Brown

A happy song to sing at children's birthday parties. It is easy to learn. Children can dance to the song, too.

* Where Is My Baseball? by Emily Moore

An interesting song to learn the names of the rooms of the house. The song is long, but children love it very much.

* Months of the Year by Jenny Clark

A fast and fun song to learn the months of the year. In this song, a big bear does different activities in different months.

Read the play and answer the questions.

Time: April, 1930
Place: A living room with big sofas, a coffee table, and a TV.
Character: Karen, a high school student, Mr. Adams, Karen's father, and Mrs. Adams, Karen's mother.

Karen: I have something to tell you, Dad.
Mr. Adams: What's that? Sit down. Let's talk over it.
Karen: I want to study to be a doctor.
Mr. Adams: A doctor? Don't you want to be an engineer?
Karen: I changed my mind. (Mrs. Adams sits down beside Karen.)
Mrs. Adams: What happened, Karen?
Karen: I wanted to be an engineer before because Dad is a great one, but I'm not really interested in it. I want to study medicine.
(Mr. Adams stands up and walks to the door.)
Mr. Adams: Think twice, Karen. I'm going to work.
Karen: Bye, Dad. (Two minutes later.)
Mrs. Adams: Well, you have to know that it's not easy to be a woman doctor, Karen. There are few in our country.
Karen: I know. I want to help sick and poor people.
Mrs. Adams: Then, follow your heart.
Karen: Thanks, Mom. What about Dad?
Mrs. Adams: Don't worry. He loves you. I'll talk to him.
Karen: I love you, Mom. (Karen hugs her mother.)
