Boy: Hello, Anna. Did you watch television yesterday?

Woman: Yes, I did, in the evening after work.

Boy: Good. Can I ask you some questions, please? I have to write something about television for my English homework.

Woman: Yes, of course.

Boy: How many programmes did you watch?

Three.

Can you see the answer? Now you listen and write.

[pause!

Boy: Which was the best programme that you watched last night?

Woman: It was a film called 'Chopsticks'. It was very old, but I enjoyed it.

Boy: Mmm. I didn't see that. What time did it start?

Woman: At 6 o'clock. And it finished at half past seven. Then I had dinner, after that.

Boy: Were there any famous actors in the film?

Woman: Yes. Margie MacDonald. I love her films!

Boy: Oh. Can you spell her first name for me?

Woman: Yes. It's M A-R-G-I-E.

Boy: And what is she in the film? I mean, what kind of person?

Woman: She's a cook. In the story she wants to be a Singer but she hasn't got any money, so she has to work in a restaurant.

Boy: Oh, it sounds good. I'd like to see it now.

Woman: Yes. The actors were all excellent, and it's an interesting story too.
