Activity 3

Match the texts with the correct pictures. Then, sequence the pictures according to the poem.

Meeting spirits doesn't scare him,
He would smile and wish them hello,
Whatever things scare dads the most,
My dad would just overcome them.

He's not afraid of vampires,
Or a wolf-man coming to catch him,
If Frankenstein's monster came to visit,
He wouldn't be disturbed.

My dad is as brave as any father is,
And he's ready to show it clearly,
But when there's a spider in the bath,
Why does Mum have to take it away?

My dad is as brave as any father is,
He is the best,
He is not afraid in the middle of the night,
Or of anything else.

He is not scared of watching movies late at night,
Or frightening films on television,
Is dad scared of skeletons?
No, not on your life!
