Write the term or the collocation next to the definition

1. Leaving a job:
2. Somebody who starts a business or businesses:
3. Somebody who creates a new idea or product:
4. Money that you get for a special reason e.g. to invest in a business:
5. Somebody who establishes a company with another person:
6. To stop doing something for a short period of time (to rest):
7. The money that someone is paid each month by their employer:
8. To start a new business, often by providing the necessary money:
9. To be present at a formal gathering:
10. To create a new product, process or service:
11. To get a sum of money or other resources for a specific objective:

LIVEWORKSHEETS