PRONOUNS

We use a pronoun to identify who is the subject in a sentence.

I, you*, he, she, it, we, they

YOU can be used for singular or plural (second person)

But not always we have pronouns in the sentences so we have to think about a replacement to work correctly our sentences:

Example: Camila = she Daniel = he Camila and Daniel = they Camila and I = we

Daniel and you = you

Remember that the pronoun IT is used for singular (1 animal, 1 thing)

Example: Horse = it Basket = it

But when we need the plural pronoun for animals and objects we use THEY

Example: The cats = they The books = they

It means that the pronoun THEY can be used for ANIMALS, THINGS and of course PEOPLE.

Write the correct pronoun next to the words:

Cat		Laptop		House
Car		Telephone		Ricardo and Susan
Mouse		Carla		The Rodriguez
Elephant		Aunt		Waiter
Book		Parents		Table
Pillows		Chair		Jane
Parrots		People		Charles
Ana, Teresa and I		Camilla and I		Doctors
Paty		Tomato		Tv
Sonia and you		Lion		Chair and table
Snail		Antony		Alex and I

LIVEWORKSHEETS