OVER AND OVER AGAIN!

NOTE: Over at the beginning of a verb can mean TOO MUCH. E.g. OVEREAT=eat too much.
However, this not always the case.
E.g. OVERTURN =turn upside down or on the side.

Let's see what these words mean. Match the verbs beginning with over with their meanings.Write the letter in the box.

1. I overheard my parents making arrangements for a surprise party for me. ☐
2. Norman overslept this morning and he was late for the exam. ☐
3. The detective overlooked the fact that the window had been broken from the inside. ☐
4. Most people noticed that Maria's cake was overcooked but they didn't say anything. ☐
5. We overstayed our reservation at the hotel because we forgot to set the alarm clock and woke up very late. ☐
6. I forgot to turn off the faucet, so the sink (or) bathtub overflowed and flooded the bathroom. ☐

a. to stay in a place longer than you should
b. cook sth. for too long
c. be so full that the contents go over the sides
d. sleep longer than you should
e. hear sth. by accident or without the speaker knowing it
f. not notice or ignore sth.

WORD FORMATION!!!

NOTE: Some nouns are formed by adding the suffix -ness or -ity to an adjective.
E.g. sad –sadness, able – ability.

ADJECTIVE	NOUN
active	ACTIVITY
popular
fit
lonely
dark
aware capable
kind
possible
weak
similar necessary

NOTE: Some nouns have an irregular formation

Let's try what you know. If you are not sure about the word formation, check on an online dictionary.

ADJECTIVE OR VERB	NOUN
strong
	weight
	depth
high anger

ADJECTIVE OR VERB	NOUN
	belief
relieve dead/die
	thought
famous
	growth