Learning for life...

Edison Jr. High School

ENGLISH

Best mates

- Instructions: Fill the gaps with the correct preposition or adverb.

She was obviously lying. She'd made _____ a story about how she met Lady Gaga after the concert and gone to a party with her.

He was devastated that nobody liked his book. It took him months to get _____ it, but he's OK now - he's writing another one!

I knew something weird was going _____, but she wouldn't tell me what was happening.

My grandma was ill and fed up, so I showed her my funny holiday photos to cheer her _____.

Why don't you hang _____ with me for a while? I haven't seen you for ages and I want to spend some time with you.

I don't really get _____ with my stepdad. He hardly ever talks to me and I don't like his jokes.

I don't want to speak to Anna any more! If I bump _____ her in the street, I'll just ignore her.

He cheated _____ his girlfriend, but then he felt really guilty.

Have you heard? Jacob and Amelia have broken _____! They've been together for ages. I'm really surprised.

The tickets had the wrong names on and they nearly didn't let us on the plane. Luckily my friend speaks really good English and she managed to sort it _____ .