Read the message from your friend, Aliya.

Hello,

My sister is inviting me to join a free online concert together next Saturday. Should I use my own device or should I join using her device? Any suggestions?

Your friend,

Aliya

Write a reply to Aliya. Drag and drop the sentences in the correct boxes.

This way, not only can you save electricity but you also help to conserve energy too.

Moreover, you will also have a lot of fun dancing with your sister.

I suggest you share the device with your sister.

In addition, it also an environmentally friendly thing to do.

I'm glad to hear that you are joining an online concert.

Love,

I hope you will have a fun time with your sister. Take care.
