

RELATIVE CLAUSES (II)

Join the following sentences by means of a relative pronoun.

1. My uncle has a large collection of antiques. Many of them are valuable.
2. I'm writing about a film. It was made in 1958.
3. I have ten cousins. None of them are girls.
4. She's the girl. They were talking about her.
5. There are some beautiful houses in the town. Some of them are more than two hundred years old.
6. That's the restaurant. We go there every Sunday.
7. She met lots of new people at the party. A few of them commented on her beautiful dress.
8. This is the island. We spent our holiday on it.
9. Ted planted lots of new rose bushes in his garden. Very few of them survived the cold winter.
10. There are the Smiths. We went to the theatre with them.
11. The supermarket has thirty employees. Most of them work part-time.
12. I spoke to a gentleman. He was very polite.
13. The firm is sending me to York. I work for this firm.

14.The girl is my sister. She is behind the tree.

15.The Stevens were given rooms in the hotel. Their house had been destroyed after the hurricane.

16.He introduced me to his students. Most of them were from abroad.

17.A man answered the phone. He said Tom was out.

18.I was sitting on a chair. It suddenly collapsed.

19.The spoon was stolen from a hotel. He was eating with it.

20.The people look very tired. They are waiting for the bus.

21.That's the hotel. We used to stay at it in summer.

22.He's Mr. Jones. I got all the information from him.

23.This is the knife. He cut the bread with it.

24.Mrs. Andrews is the woman. I've received a letter from her.

25.You sent me a present. Thank you very much for it.

26.I am looking after some children. They are terribly spoilt.

27.The bed has no mattress. I sleep on this bed.

28.Romeo and Juliet were two lovers. Their parents hated each other.

29.This is Mrs Wayne. Her son won the championship last year.

30.His girlfriend turned out to be an enemy spy. He trusted her absolutely.

31. I was waiting for a man. He didn't turn up.

32.A man brought in a small girl. Her hand had been cut by flying glass.