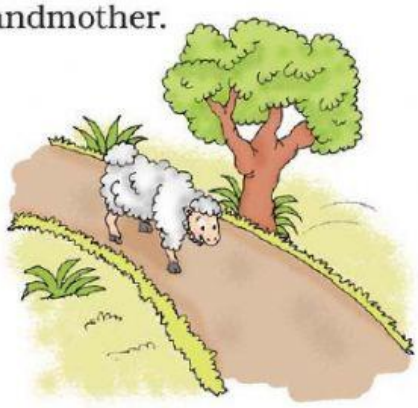
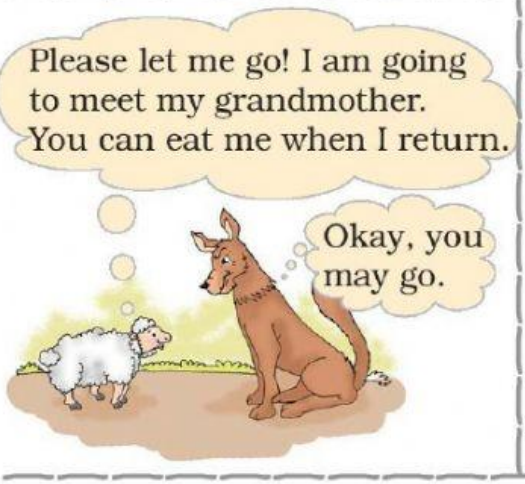
Wise Grandmother

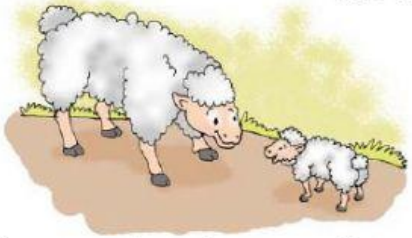
Once there was a Lamb going to see his grandmother.



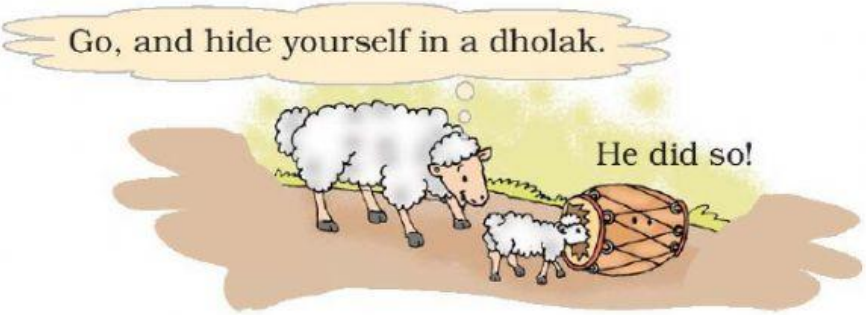
On the way, through the jungle he met a wolf.



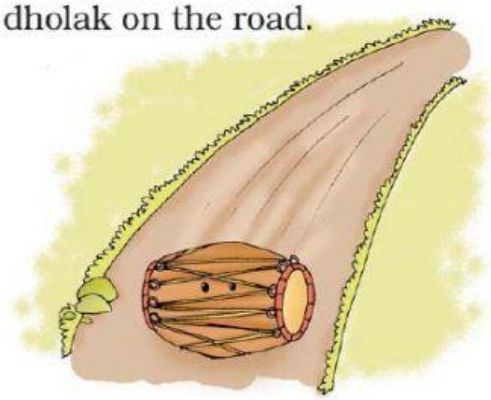
When he was about to return, he told the grandmother about the wolf.



The grandmother gave him an idea.

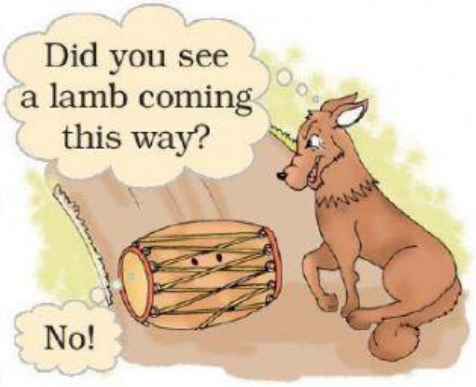


The grandmother rolled the dholak on the road.

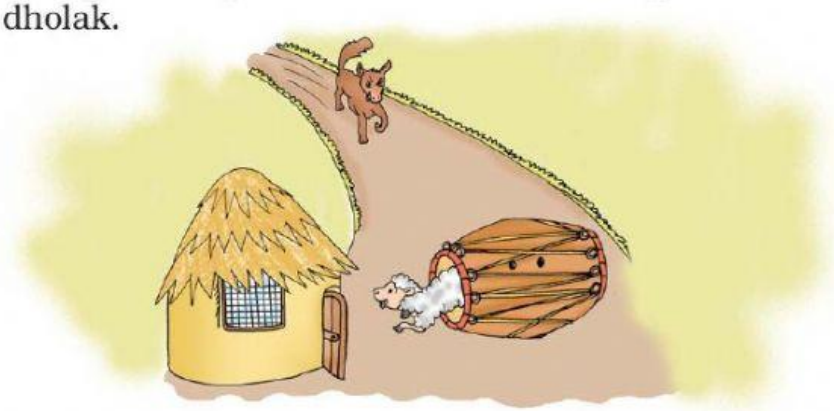


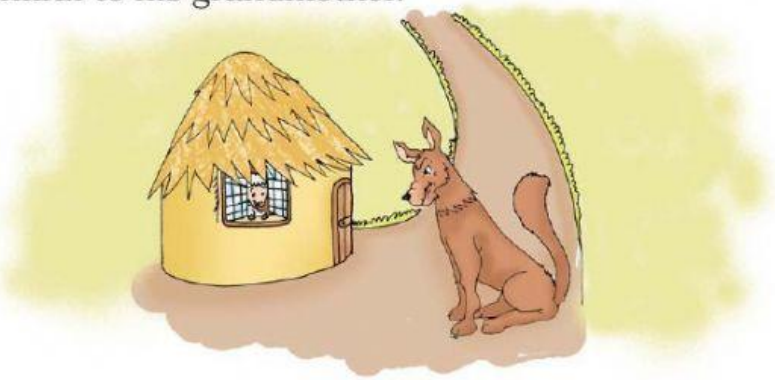
The dholak started rolling down.

The lamb saw the wolf waiting for him.



The wolf grew suspicious and started running behind the dholak.





Before the wolf could catch him, the lamb reached home and was thankful to his grandmother.
