ENGLISH WORKSHEET 2_6TH GRADE (OA.5).

1 Match. Then read the story again and check.

A biographical profile

In about 1920	Kimani and his teacher were in the USA.
In about 1927	Kimani was in Class 1 at primary school.
In 2003	Kimani was born in Nairobi in Kenya.
In 2004	Kimani and his father were cowherds.
In 2005	Kimani was in the Guinness World Records book.

2 Do the quiz. Circle a or b and complete the sentences.

QUIZ

What do you know about Kimani Maruge?

1 Kimani Maruge was born in Kenya.
a the USA (b) Kenya

2 He _____ at school when he was young.
a was b wasn't

3 Primary education _____ free in Kenya in 2003.
a was b wasn't

4 Kimani _____ a good pupil.
a was b wasn't

5 His grandchildren _____ in his class.
a were b weren't

6 He _____ famous because he was the oldest pupil in the world.
a was b wasn't

Review

Kimani Marugi was born in the USA / Kenya / Britain.
When he was a boy, there were no / some / two free schools.
In 2003, there was a new law / school / class – free education for everyone. Kimani was about eighteen / eighty / eighty-four years old.
Kimani was in class 1 with his cousins / children / grandchildren.
Kimani was the oldest / bravest / friendliest primary pupil in the world.
In 2005, he was a reporter / speaker / teacher at the United Nations in the USA. His message was 'Free education is very important!'

LIVEWORKSHEETS