PROVERBS 4

A- Match the proverb with its definition. Write the correct letter.

1. Don't bite off more than you can chew. ☐
2. Every cloud has a silver lining. ☐
3. You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink it. ☐
4. When in Rome, do as the Romans do. ☐
5. Two heads are better than one. ☐
6. It's no use crying over spilt milk. ☐
7. The grass is always greener on the other side. ☐
8. The early bird gets the worm. ☐
9. Practice makes perfect. ☐

A- There is no point in staying upset over a mistake because you can't undo what has happened.

B- People who wake up early or who get to places early have a better chance of success

C- When you are in a new place or situation, try to act like the majority of people in that place or situation.

D- Don't take more responsibility than you can handle.

E- It's easier to do something as a team than by yourself.

F- People always want what they don't have

G- The more you do something, the better you will become at it

H- Every bad or negative situation can result in some benefit to you.

I- You can try to help someone by giving good advice, but you can't force them to accept it or follow it

B- Read the sentences and write a proverbs that completes the example.

Just write the number of the proverb from ex. A.

a. "Don't give up on learning the violin. Remember, _____."
b. "I know your business has suffered few setbacks this season. But remember,_____"
c. "I'm stuck on this project. Can you help me out? _____."
d. A: "I'm jealous of all the free time my single friends have."
   B: "Yeah, but your friends are probably jealous of you too in some ways. _____."
e. A: "Why have you come so early for the season-ending sale?
   B: "So that I can choose from a wider selection and get a better piece. _____, after all.
f. "She tried to help her brother find a job by improving his resume, but he didn't do anything with it. I guess _____"
g. A: "Tom is feeling terrible for accidently elbowing the flower pot from the window.
   B: It's broken now. _____".