WRITE AN ARTICLE

STRUCTURE
TITLE	Engage the reader. Catchy. Provocative.
INTRODUCTION	Introduce topic. Engages the reader further. Usually poses a question to be answered at the end of the article.
MAIN BODY	Develop ideas: E.g. Positive aspects Negative aspects
CONCLUSION	Give answer to previous question. Give your opinion/point of view. Take sides.

Advice

Underline some of the key language in the notice to help guide you when you write the article. The article is asking for your opinion about a particular topic, so you can write the article in the first person (In my opinion, I believe, I think, etc.)

You see this notice on an International English website for young people.

Write your article in about 100 words.

Articles wanted

PLAYING GAMES

Write an article telling us which kinds of games you think are more interesting to play: board games or video games.
What can people learn from playing games?
The best article answering these questions will be published next month.