Vocabulary Quiz #2 Term 2

Fill in the gaps with the suitable word from the box.

compliments	according to	perspective
afterwards	acceptable	ethics

Passage A

La Pizza is a new restaurant in town. However, it is very famous and receives very good reviews or 1._____ from its customers. Many of the customers order the signature dish of this restaurant and 2._____ they listen to the life music. 3._____ them, the restaurant is really cozy and homy. That's the main reason why it is so popular.

Even though the price is pretty expensive for some people, the customers think that is still 4._____. They do not mind to pay extra cash. On the other hand, the waiters and waitresses show wonderful work 5._____ to their customers. They are very polite, patient and friendly. In addition, its location is very strategic too. From business 6._____, having a strategic location can bring lots of benefits.

harmless	excuse	trait
unacceptable	ethical	respectful

Passage B

Peter was late again to meet Dona and their client. The client complained to her and cancelled the project because of him. She felt very ashamed. "He'd better have a good 7._____ for being late!" she grumbled.

She felt disappointed of him and her disappointment grew bigger as Peter never apologized for being late. He was too arrogant to admit his lateness for thinking that he is the boss. Arrogance is a very unattractive character 8._____. Peter is not a 9._____ boss. He definitely has 10._____ issues in doing business with his client. He thought being late is 11._____ to his business and career. That is silly and 12._____!

LIVEWORKSHEETS