Exercise 2: Reading comprehension. Put True or False

Read the text below and mark the statements true (T) or false (F).

My name's Agneta. I was born in Sweden, but I live in London. I study English in a small Language School near my flat. At the end of the term we always have a party and we bring a small item of food typical of our culture. I usually bring a prinsesstårta or Princess Cake which is very popular with Swedes. A lady called Jenny Akerstrom invented the cake. In the 1930s Jenny taught King Carl's three daughters and the three princesses loved the cake. In Sweden people eat Princess Cake all year round, but the third week in September is Princess Cake week. Then all the people buy, eat and celebrate their national cake! The cake has jam and cream and is covered with green marzipan and a pink rose. It looks very pretty and tastes delicious. At Christmas, Princess Cake has red marzipan and at Easter, yellow. On party day, we all come in national dress. The Korean girls, for example, wear Hanbok – their national dress. I really want to see the others dressed in their costumes. I very much enjoy my English classes and meeting my friends from all over the world.
