Unit 3

Double Comparatives:
The first phrase expresses a condition.
The second phrase expresses an outcome or result of the condition.

Structure: The + comparative expression + subject + verb,
The same structure is used in both phrases.

2 Read. Write the letter that connects the idea of the comparative phrase on the left to the comparative phrase on the right.

____ 1. The more we use chemicals on farms,	a. the more diverse your diet is.
____ 2. The more local food we eat,	b. the less eating it impacts the environment.
____ 3. The greater the population growth,	c. the more food is available.
____ 4. The lower the cost of producing food,	d. the better for the ocean's ecosystem.
____ 5. The higher the number of species fished,	e. the shorter distance we need to ship food.
____ 6. The less wholesome food we eat,	f. the more the environment is harmed.
____ 7. The more diverse the kinds of ocean fish,	g. the lower the price people pay for food.
____ 8. The greater the harvest,	h. the more food we need to produce.
____ 9. The lower a fish is on the food chain,	i. the greater variety of seafood available.
____10. The more kinds of food you eat,	j. the worse for our health.

LIVEWORKSHEETS