

Present Perfect- yet - already

We use already in affirmative sentences to express that an action has been completed.

We use yet in negative and interrogative sentences to express that an action hasn't been completed.

Laura is in Rome. Write what she has or hasn't done. Use already or yet.

- Visit the colosseum ✓
- Go on a boat trip on the Tiber river x
- Buy souvenirs for friends x
- Take lots of photos ✓
- See the Pantheon x
- Walk around the Trevi Fountain ✓

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)
- 5)
- 6)

Ana and Luis are friends. Write what they have or haven't done together. Use already and yet. Then match the pictures to the actions. (write numbers)

- |                   |                       |
|-------------------|-----------------------|
| 1) Do gymnastic ✓ | 2) play tennis x      |
| 3) Eat sushi x    | 4) fly to Bariloche ✓ |

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)

