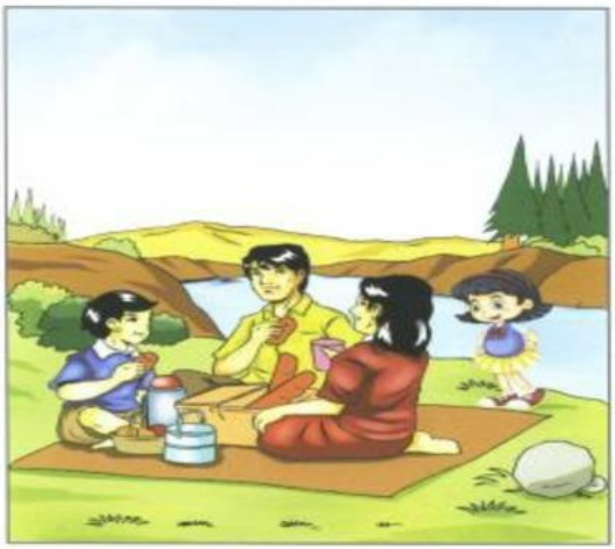
The rabbits at the picnic



One day Jack's family decided to have a picnic by the lake. It was a beautiful lake in the countryside full of fish and frogs. Jack's mother made lots of food and Jack's father put the children's kites and some towels in the car. Jack and his sister were excited about the picnic.

The family's big red car was very old, so they drove slowly over the mountains to the lake. First the children wanted to swim in the lake. Jack jumped off the rocks and tried to catch frogs. His sister was very good at swimming and she swam quickly round the lake. The water was cold, so soon the children got out of the lake and got their towels. When the family sat down to eat their picnic, they saw some rabbits watching them.

'Look!' Jack's sister said. 'Mum, can we give them some cheese?' But Jack's mum said that they mustn't give a rabbit cheese. She said that the children could give the rabbits some fruit. Jack held out half a pear to one of the rabbits, but the rabbit was afraid and hopped away.

But one of the other rabbits was braver. It hopped close to Jack. Suddenly, it jumped up, took the pear, and hopped back. Jack's sister laughed. 'What a funny rabbit,' she said. 'Dad, can we bring one home?' Her dad told her that these were not pet rabbits. 'OK!' she said. 'Let's fly our kites then.' The rabbits hopped away into the forest and the children flew their kites.
