The Hungry Caterpillar

Once there was a very tiny caterpillar. First, she went her way up a tree looking for food. When she reached a leaf, she took a small bite. Then she took a bigger bite. Then she took an even bigger bite! Soon, the leaf was gone, and the caterpillar moved to the next leaf. She ate that leaf, and the leaf beside that, and the leaf beside that, and she grew bigger and bigger and bigger. One day, though, the caterpillar stopped eating. After that, she hung from the tree. Then, she spun a cocoon around herself and went to sleep. For many days she slept. Then one day she awoke and came out of the cocoon. Only she was no longer a caterpillar —finally, she was now a beautiful butterfly!
