4 Martha arranged a welcome party for her brother. Now, they are at the party. Work in groups of three and act out the conversation.

Bob: Thank you very much for the party, Martha. You are very thoughtful.

Martha: You're welcome, Bob. Kevin helped me a lot.

Bob: Thanks a lot, Kevin.

Kevin: Not a problem at all.

Martha: Would you like some small sandwiches, Kevin?

Kevin: Yes, why not. A few, please.

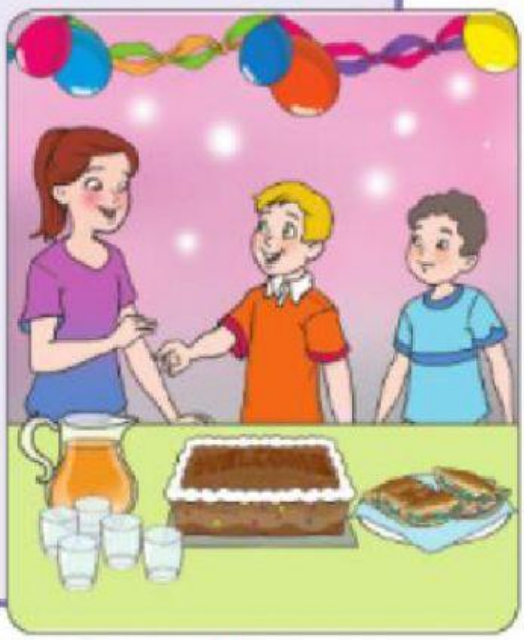
Martha: Okay, here you are. What about you, Bob?

Bob: No, thanks. I'm full. Maybe after I cut the cake, but I can have some orange juice.

Martha: Sure. Kevin, would you like some orange juice?

Kevin: Yes, please. Just a little. Thanks.

Martha: Alright.



a Match and complete the sentences. One answer is extra.

1	Martha is giving a		a	his help.
2	Bob thanks Kevin for		b	some orange juice.
3	Kevin wants		c	welcome party.
4	Bob wants to drink		d	to cut the cake.
			e	a few sanwiches.

b Read the dialogue again and write True (T) or False (F).

1. Kevin is at a party. ( )
2. Kevin didn't help Martha with the party preparations. ( )
3. Bob doesn't want to eat a sandwich because he is full. ( )
4. Martha offers Kevin to drink lemonade. ( )

LIVEWORKSHEETS