Write the Subject or the Predicate as is requested.

1. Teresa's parents have formed a service organization for the community.

Subject:

2. Many people in our neighborhood are joining the organization.

Subject:

3. The group will provide help to older people in the community.

Predicate

4. Each member has a special talent.

Subject:

5. Mrs. Gallo can fix leaky plumbing.

Predicate:

Directions Write F after fragments. Write R after run-ons. Write S after complete sentences.

1. Can put on a new roof. _____
2. Mr. Larkin is repairing his next-door neighbor's driveway he is pouring cement. _____
3. Neighborhood children will shovel snow in the winter. _____
4. Some women drive senior citizens to their doctors' appointments. _____
5. The Meadowbrook Service Club. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS