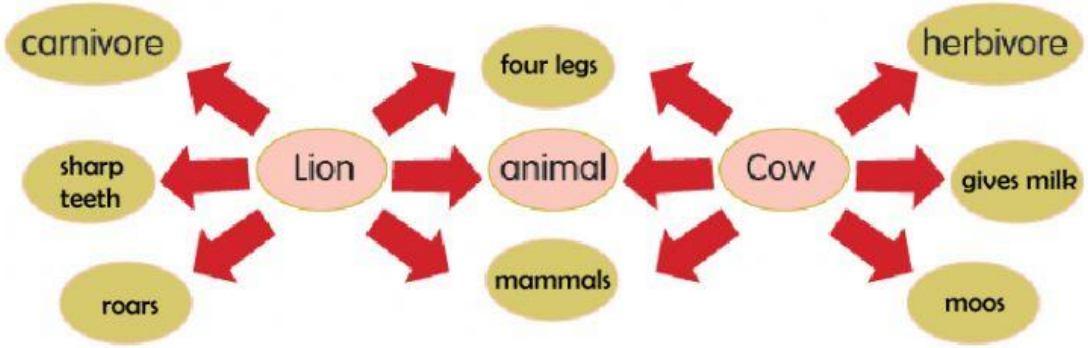
Let's write.

When you write about the similarities and differences between people, places or things, you use the following words:

Similarities	Similarly,	Likewise,	Both,
Differences	On the other hand,	However,	In contrast,

Let's practise.

Compare and contrast between a lion and a cow using the double bubble map.



Use the conjunctions above and the words in the double bubble map to help complete the sentences.

1. A lion is a _____. _____, a cow is an herbivore.
2. _____ lion and cow are _____.
3. A lion has _____. _____, a cow gives milk.
4. A lion has _____. _____, a cow does too.
5. A lion _____. _____, a cow _____.
6. A cow is a _____. _____, a lion is also a _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS