G8 Unit 2 For each group, choose the correct sentence A or B.

1. A. It usually snows more heavily in the mountains than in the lowlands.

   B. It usually snows heavier in the mountains than in the lowlands.

2. A. Those farmers work much harder on their farms than we can imagine.

   B. Those farmers work much more hard on their farms than we can imagine.

3. A. City children often react more quickly to technical developments country children.

   B. City children often react more quickly to technical developments than country children.

4. A. The colour orange shines more brightly in the sun than the colour blue.

   B. The colour orange shines brightly in the sun than the colour blue.

5. A. I'm not sure who lives more happily: nomads or city dwellers.

   B. I'm not sure who lives happier: nomads or city dwellers.

6. A. A ger can be more easy pulled down than a house.

   B. A ger can be more easily pulled down than a house.

LIVEWORKSHEETS