

HELP WITH GRAMMAR: AS; LIKE; SO; SUCH; SUCH AS

Look at the sentences 1-6. Match the sentences to the rules a-e

1. It really was more like a bad dream.	a. We use like + clause to say that things happen in a similar way
2. Critics such as James Pearson loved it.	b. We use like + noun (or pronoun) to say that something is similar to something else.
3. I quite like James Pearson as a critic.	c. We use as + noun to say that someone has a particular job.
4. Even though it has actors in it like Peter Harris and Maddy Benson?	d. We use such as or like to introduce examples.
5. Peter Harris was great, like he always is.	e. We also use as + noun to say what something is used for.
6. They just had these boxes on the stage which were used as train compartments.

Look at sentences 7-10. Complete these rules with so or such.

7. It had such a good cast.	f. We use _____ + adjective
8. The plot was so far-fetched	g. We use _____ + (adjective) + noun
9. So many critics loved it.	h. We use _____ + much or many + noun
10. I can't understand why it's getting so much attention.	