VOCABULARY PRACTICE

Gradable and ungradable adjectives.

- Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

1 This proposition is hugely / totally ridiculous – there's no way we can agree to it.
2 So far we've had an extremely / absolutely successful year.
3 The demands they have been making are extremely / absolutely outrageous.
4 The prices you've been quoted seem completely / incredibly high.
5 The concept is extremely brilliant / clever – there's no way it could possibly fail.
6 The sales conference was incredibly helpful / fantastic. You should have gone.
7 I think it would be absolutely impossible / difficult to cut costs any further.
8 Developing a good business model is totally / very important before approaching people for funding.
9 The weather has been absolutely bad / terrible recently.
10 Your business plan is incredibly / completely useless, so it will be hard to attract investors.

LIVEWORKSHEETS