Phrasal verbs (part II)

EXERCISES

1. Match the halves of the sentences.

1 He came across some very old letters	A. when the Russian ballerina came on.
2 When the DVD of the concert came out	B. which means global supplies are good.
3 I've come up with an idea	C. was the most difficult problem they came up against.
4 There was great applause from the audience	D. it sold millions of copies.
5 The racing driver was unconscious after the accident	E. but our plan didn't come off.
6 We hoped to visit our friends in Canada last year	F. but to everyone's relief he soon came round.
7 Oil prices have come down recently	G. while he was cleaning out the attic.
8 Getting permission to cross the border	H. for starting a new business.

2. Look for the phrasal verbs with come in the sentences in Ex 1 and match them to their definitions. Then use one of the phrasal verbs to complete each of the sentences below.

- _____: find by chance.
- _____: think of.
- _____: fall.
- _____: succeed.
- _____: be released.
- _____: appear on stage.
- _____: face (a problem).
- _____: regain consciousness.

1 The builders couldn't _____ an explanation for the delay.
2 The new children's film will _____ before the start of the school holidays.
3 The mechanic _____ a lot of difficulties when he tried to fix the old car.
4 I think our plan to build an extension on the house is going to _____.
5 It was so hot in the shops I fainted and it took me a minute or two to _____.
6 It was an hour before the main singer _____ to perform.
7 I _____ a beautiful old vase on one of the stalls in the market.
8 The price of electrical goods has _____ considerably this year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS