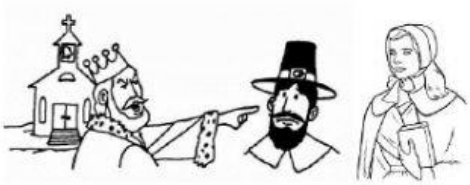
Thanksgiving, a little history

In the year _____ a hundred and two people set sailed for _____on a ship called _____ .

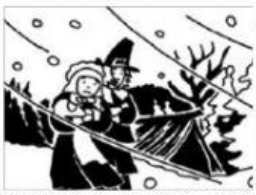
The Mayflower

The people were called The Pilgrims, they came from _____ .

The Pilgrims left England because of political and _____ problems.



The first winter was very difficult. The Pilgrims were _____ and _____ .



Half (½) of the Pilgrims died during the winter 1620-1621.

In the spring of 1621, a friendly _____ came to visit. He could speak English.

Squanto, from the Wampanoag tribe of Native Americans.

The Indians helped the Pilgrims survive. They showed them how to plant _____ .

The Pilgrims worked hard. They built houses. They went hunting and _____ .

The fall harvest was so good in 1621 and the Pilgrims were so _____ that they decided to have a big _____ . They invited their Native American friends.

They had a big party for three days. It was the first THANKSGIVING.

The Pilgrims prayed God, they said "_____ you".

LIVEWORKSHEETS