4 Read and complete.

> I don't understand why people wear clothes for a few months and then buy something new. They keep their old clothes in the wardrobe and forget about them. It's a good idea to give these clothes to charities instead, who send them to people in other countries who need them. Or, if you're good at sewing, you can use your old clothes to make new ones. If the fashion one year is for longer skirts or baggier trousers, the next year you can make your skirts shorter and your trousers tighter. Recycling isn't just for household things – let's try to recycle clothes, too.

Why (1) are clothes worn by some people for such a short time? An old shirt or skirt is kept in a wardrobe and is (2) _____ about. Sometimes, these clothes (3) _____ away to charities. When this happens, the items (4) _____ to people abroad. Or, if a person can sew, an old skirt (5) _____ to make it a new style. We recycle household things all the time – why (6) _____ more clothes recycled, too?
